

Student Behavior Universal Scenarios

1. It is the second week of school and as Ms. Chambers walks down the hall during her prep time she notices a young man walking toward her. She does not know him or his name. He has a classroom pass in his hand and is also using some type of electronic device. It looks like he is texting.
2. The class is working independently and Dylan notices that Mr. Jones is facing away from Dylan and the door and he is helping another student. Dylan wants to go to the bathroom so he walks over to the door to sign out and get the pass. He notices another student has signed out and has the pass. He decides to leave anyway.
3. The class is working independently and Stephanie wants to get a drink. She goes to the desk at the front of the room where the sign out sheet and passes are and signs out and takes the pass.
4. You are standing in your doorway monitoring the hallway as the bell rings to identify the beginning of block 4. You see Johnny in the distance heading towards your class as you go into your room and close the door. When Johnny enters a few moments later he goes quietly to his seat.
